C.A. No. 05-143Erie
District Judge Cohill
Magistrate Judge Baxter

ORDER

Petitioner has moved for the appointment of counsel to assist him with his pending petition for writ of habeas corpus. There is no federal right to habeas corpus counsel. Pennsylvania v. Finley, 481 U.S. 551, 555 (1987) (“[the Supreme Court] had never held that prisoners have a constitutional right to counsel when mounting collateral attacks upon their convictions”). The right to counsel extends only through trial and the first appeal as of right. McClesky v. Zant, 499 U.S. 467, 495 (1991). Moreover, Petitioner’s pleadings clearly state his alleged violations of federal law in order to support his habeas corpus petition.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Petitioner’s Motion for Appointment of Counsel [Document # 7] be DENIED.
